

Learner Profile

The learner profile describes the attributes that promote academic rigour and the establishing of a personal value system leading to international-mindedness.

The IB program encourages students to become:

- inquirers - their natural curiosity has been nurtured and they actively enjoy learning
- thinkers - they exercise initiative in applying thinking skills critically and creatively to solving complex problems
- communicators - they receive and express ideas and information confidentially in more than one language
- risk-takers - they approach unfamiliar situations without anxiety and have the confidence to explore new ideas
- knowledgeable - they have explored themes which have global significance and have acquired a critical mass of knowledge
- principled - they have a sound grasp of the principles of moral reasoning and have acquired integrity, honesty and a sense of justice
- caring - they show sensitivity towards the needs and feelings of others, and have a sense of personal commitment to helping others
- open-minded - they respect the values of other individuals and cultures and seek to consider a range of points of view
- well-balanced - they understand the importance of physical and mental balance and personal well-being
- reflective - they give thoughtful consideration to their own learning by constructively analyzing their personal strengths and weaknesses.
